Joyce - Attached is a copy of HB2797, which has been referred to the Senate Rules Committee, then to Appropriations. The fiscal impact statement shows it would cost nearly $5 million to implement.

Also attached is a copy of the email from Sen. A.J. Griffin inviting several people, including Carter, to a meeting this Wed., March 23 at 3:00 pm. In addition to Carter and me, the other participants include Rep. Ann Coody (R-Lawton, the bill's author; Tony Lauinger, director of Oklahoma Right-to-Life; Linda Stewart, director of a crisis pregnancy center in Guthrie; Heather Ward, Logan Co. Health Dept health educator; Sonia Johnson and Sherry Fisher, OSDE; Mindy Galoob, E.D., Tulsa Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy; Dr. Bruce Dart, E.D., Tulsa Health Dept.; and Kimberly Butler, George Kaiser Family Foundation.

Also attached is a factsheet I prepared to show that teen birth rates and numbers have been going down. In her remarks in the House, Rep. Coody said, "What we're doing isn't working" as a rationale for the required abortion curriculum in the schools. What communities and tribes are doing IS working.

The last attachment is a list of talking points, with the fiscal impact being a main one given the enormous budget deficit.

I'm in a meeting this afternoon, but would appreciate talking with you and Carter by phone tomorrow. Thanks so much! - Sharon

I'll put together info (current bill version, talking points, etc.) to send to you and Carter on Monday, along with the people I believe will be attending the meeting with Senator Griffin.

Turn off your email and enjoy wherever you are (... which I hope is somewhere fun and not at a conference)! - Sharon

I am currently out of state and will return on Monday.

Can you forward me the bill for easy retrieval and I will get with Carter upon my return?

Thanks again,

Hi -- Attached is the most recent factsheet I prepared in response for our TPP partners to share with their legislators to counter the inaccurate information about the direction of the state's teen birth rates and numbers. I included OSDH on the list re: the PREP and Abstinence funding.

In promoting HB 2797 in the House, Rep. Ann Coody (R-Lawton) said, "What we're doing isn't working." That is not true. As you know, thanks to Federal, foundation and other local funding sources, a number of communities and tribes have been providing evidence-based TPP programs that have been driving down the state's teen birth rates and numbers.

HB 2797 is now in the Senate where it has been assigned to the Rules Committee. Several people have been invited meet with Sen. A.J. Griffin and Rep. Ann Coody next Wed. to talk about the bill. Sen. Griffin (R-Logan County) is the Senate sponsor. Carter Kimble from OSDH is on the list of invitees. Are you in contact with him about TPP issues?

I'll forward the email about HB 2797 that the Tulsa TPP Campaign sent out last week. The counties on this factsheet include districts for key Senate leadership.

I wanted to keep you in-the-loop and hope you've had a good spring break! Thanks -Sharon
